Cohen's Lottery & Exchange Office.

HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE. FRIDAY. June 14th, 1822.

There were no important prizes drawn yesterday in the Monument Lottery—nothing higher than One Hundred Dollars, as will be noticed on reference to the Official List on the opposite page. As usual we had the pleasure of distributing most of them from our Office, and a large proportion amongst distant adventurers.

The amount of prizes drawn being small, the gain of the wheel yesterday was nearly Three Thousand Dollars. As the most important period of the Scheme is fast approaching, small prizes ought to be renewed without delay, and intended investments should also be immediately made, particularly while tickets and shares can still be had at the present low rate of Twelve Dollars. Direct as usual to J. I. COHEN, Jr. Secretary to the Managers—Baltimore.

The first drawn number in the Monument Lottery on Wednesday next being the 18th day, will be entitled to a premium of One Thousand Dollars, agreeably to the scheme. On the 22d drawing the first number from the wheel will be entitled to Five Thousand Dollars.

Fourth of July.—A meeting of the citizens is to take place this day at the Exchange, for the purpose of making arrangements for the celebration of the ensuing anniversary of the Independence of the United States.

Important Trial.—The cause of the United States against Daniel D. Tompkins, which commenced before the Circuit Court on Tuesday, terminated yesterday afternoon, when the jury brought in a verdict for the defendant.

This suit against the vice-president, we understand, was for the sum of between eleven and twelve thousand dollars, alleged to have been due from him to the United States, while at the same time the defendant claimed of the United States a very large sum, (it is said above half a million of dollars) for expenditures during the late war.

After a patient investigation of three days the jury were of opinion that there was due to the vice-president, from the evidence before them, the sum of $136,799 79.—N. F. Merc. Adv. June 7.

Commerce with France.—The treaty which has been for some time negotiating, we have reason to believe has been concluded, and a proclamation to that effect will be issued by the President. The arrangement is such as to promote reciprocal benefits, at the same time shut out competition. Our tonnage and seamen will derive additional benefits from this commercial treaty. We could wish that the French Cabinet would see the policy of reducing the duty on tobacco and cotton, thereby enabling us to import light French wines at very reduced prices, and introduce them generally in the country. The French silks, by this reduction of duty, would supercede the necessity of East India importations, and save exportation of a vast quantity of specie.—Nat. Adv.

FAMILY MARKET PRICES CURRENT.

Baltimore.—Beef 8 a 12¹ cts.—Pork 6 a 9.—Veal 9 a 10.—Mutton 6 a 8.—Butter 31 a 37¹—Cheese 12.—Eggs per doz. 12¹—New Potatoes per bush. $1 25 a $1 50.—Peas per bush. 50.—Cherries per qt. 4 a 12.—Currants 12¹—Lettuce, very fine, 3 a 4 cts. per head.

New-York, June 8.—Of green peas we have vast abundance. The average price this day about 10 o'clock, was 18d. per peck; the best butter from 1s. 6d. to 1s. 9d. per lb.; eggs 9 and 10 for a shilling; strawberries from 9 to 12 cts. per basket, holding about a thimble full; new potatoes 3s. per peck. It may be observed, however, that these potatoes are not the production of our island, nor its vicinity; but that they have been brought from N. Carolina. Cherries 12¹ cents per lb. The best veal was sold by the hind quarter at six pence per lb.; and lamb, mutton, beef and pork were sold proportionably cheap. We have seldom seen a greater abundance of fish of various kinds than was to be found in our markets this morning. There were a great many of that delicious fish, called sheep's head, which were sold from 75 cents to $1 25 cts. according to their size. Fresh salmon 2s. 6d. p. lb. Lobsters, sea bass, and black fish were sold at 5 cts. per lb. and flounders, week fish, eels, &c. at almost any price the purchaser chose to give.

Philadelphia, June 8.—New potatoes 6 to 8 cts. a pound; lettuces, very fine, 3 cents a head; green gooseberries 6 cents a quart; cherries 6 cents a pound; peas 15 cents, and stringed beans 25 cents the half peck. Best grass butter 18¹ cents per pound.

Miscellaneous Intelligence.

From the Charleston Courier, June 6.

From England.—By the ship Bayard, Captain VANDYKE, our London papers are to the 2d, and Liverpool to the 4th of May—not so late by some days as we had expected.

The rumours of war appear to be dying away. The West India and American Trade Bill was not taken up in the House of Commons on the 29th of April—the subject of Agricultural Distress, occupied the attention of the House on that day.

Committees were forming, and wealthy individuals coming forward in London, on the 1st of May, to adopt means for the immediate relief of the suffering inhabitants of Ireland.

The Grand Jury of Columbia County, South-Carolina, presents as a grievance the “unwarrantable expression of language by members of the Bar towards contending clients and witnesses, and a certain perplexing and irritating manner of interrogating witnesses, with a view to embarrass them, and provoke apparent contradiction in their testimony.”

Among the victims in the Albion was the generous and gallant French general Lefebvre Desnouettes. He had been attached to Bonaparte, and soon after the battle of Waterloo, had fled from France and reached our shores. He was tried during his absence, and was condemned to death par contumace. He had remained in the United States for little more than six years—his wife and two children in France. She had made two ineffectual efforts to join him in America—but each time was cast away. Unable to bear a separation so painful to him, from his country and his family, he determined to risk every thing, and trust himself to the mercy and generosity of the king—who must have been moved by his misfortune to cancel the sentence passed against him. But it was not destined for Desnouettes to reach his country. He perished in the Albion, unknown to the surviving passengers and crew, and the Irish people have no means of knowing the fate of the general, or of paying any particular respect to his remains. Desnouettes was beloved by every Frenchman who knew him in this country—and respected by every American who was so for unate as to obtain his acquaintance. It is impossible to learn the melancholy fate of so interesting a man without the deepest sympathy.

[Richmond Compiler.]

A great many sheep have perished in Massachusetts. The cause of the complaint is grubs or worms, from half an inch to an inch in length, near the root of the horn. It may be useful to our agricultural friends to mention that tar around the roots has been found both a preventive and a cure.

[Patriot.]

The steam boat Prometheus, plying between Wilmington and Smithville (N. C.) took fire at the former place on Friday, 31st ult. but owing to the exertions of the Fire Companies, she was saved after sustaining injury to the amount of about 1000 dollars.

All for Love.—The Salem Register mentions a report of a duel having taken place in the neighbourhood of that town, between two gallants, who resolved to blow each other's brains out, because they could not both marry one girl. They had two meetings. At the first they fought with muskets, at four paces, but neither shot took effect.—At the second meeting, one of the seconds fell, in consequence of a misdirected fire occasioned by the trepidation of one of the principals! A few more such duels we think would put an end to the practice, as the seconds, no matter how willing they be that their friends should fall, would hardly encounter the risk of being shot themselves.

Forgery.—T. Button has been tried in the Circuit Court of the United States, at Boston, the Hon. Judge Story presiding, for altering a check on the Branch Bank in that city, from $140 to 9090, and found guilty. He was sentenced last Saturday to be imprisoned for six years, and pay a fine of two thousand dollars.—N. Y. Post.

The following is from the Baltimore Patriot, and is meant as a satire on late feats of gourmandizing which have been published in many of the papers.

A gentleman well known to the editor, but who, from motives of delicacy does not wish his name mentioned, has assured us, on the word of another gentleman, that a few mornings past, a friend of his ate for a wager, at a single meal, fourteen pounds of rosin soap, three pair of woolen stockings, fried in drippings, and as much raw tripe as would make him a pair of leather breeches, eight dozen of lamprey eels, forty-four leather-winged bats, thirty-two pounds of tallow candles, three pump bolts, a ring-tailed monkey, two cart wheels, a live jackass, a small negro boy fricaseed in a hamper of chesnut burs, besides bread, butter, &c. in proportion.

The following interesting advertisement is taken from the same paper of the 4th instant:—

“To the Public.—The public are hereby notified that, in the month of February last, the subscriber unfortunately was married to a woman by the name of Bridget Riley, who he now finds has another husband living in Ireland, by the name of O'Hara. As he does not wish any longer to interfere in another man's concerns, and to avoid all difficulty by conflicting titles hereafter, all persons are hereby notified not to credit the said Bridget upon the subscriber's account, as he will not pay any debts she may hereafter contract, for his marriage is void in law, and ‘Richard is himself again.’

“BARN A DONOHO,

“Not Barna the Cow Dealer.

“Baltimore May 29.”

Smith Randall, convicted at Tuscaloosa (Alab.) of having counterfeited and passed bills of the Bank of the United States, of the denomination of fifty dollars, has been sentenced to be hung at Tuscaloosa (this day) the 7th of June.—N. F. Amer.
